Dear Mrs. Manley:

I received your letter this morning and was pleased to know that one of your players had recommended me for a try-out with the Eagles. I gladly accept the opportunity of making a bid for a catcher's position on your team.

From all indications, I will not be able to report for a try-out until the last week in May in as much as I am to graduate on May 27th. I realize that this is a rather late date to make an appearance for a try-out but I am hoping you will find it possible to test my worth at this time.

The following information will give you the necessary facts pertaining to my physical growth:

1. height - 9'
2. weight - 176
3. throw - right hand
4. bat - from right side of the plate
5. age - 21

A reply would be greatly appreciated.
